I would like to thank all my friends, family members, and teachers for making my senior year, and the rest of my high school experience, so "grool." I meant to say cool and then I started to say great. I also would like to share an inspirational quote, which I am certain will help anyone in a frustrating situation: "See I never thought that I could walk through fire, I never thought that I could take the burn, I never had the strength to take it higher, until I reached the point of no return. And there's just no turning back, when your heart's under attack, gonna give everything I have, it's my destiny. I will never say never." (Justin Bieber) But seriously, thank you all so much! Words cannot describe how much I will miss you all. I know that you all are ready to walk through fire and take the burn.

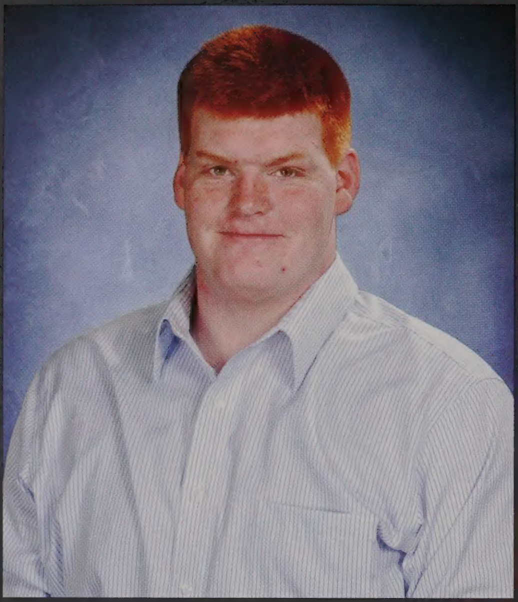
Congratulations Class of 2012! I'm going to miss all of my amazing Littleton friends. KDS, I don't know what I would have done without you and I'm happy to have shared all of the following: freezing in band during football games; doodle wars under the desk in novel; math makes no sense after midnight; our only successful AP Bio experiment was too successful; page long AP Calc problems; Colonius my made up Hamlet character; Fabio the ninja pirate dinosaur; respect Link



Richard White

"Finally, I've become the person I've wanted to be, it's taken me a long time. But this is how it goes, and I'm learning quickly, to surround myself with those, who value me, and are proud of me." (Texas in July) I would first like to thank my parents, without you nothing would be possible for me. Secondly, to my sister, Thank you for setting the bar so high, I would not have had a reason to achieve as much as I did. To my best friend BG "HELP! B-Money's trailers on fire!" To JR "hit the deck! They're shootin' at us." To AL "Don't worry, nothing violent ever happens here. EXCEPT THIS!" To JA the Pterodactyl says hi. I may not be from Littleton, but Littleton seems like my home. I will forever remember the feeling of Friday Night @7 on Alumni Field. Finally I would like to thank Tony Barnardo, You have been like my older brother throughout the last three years and without your advice I wouldn't have made it. "What brings me back, I don't know! I need to grow and I need to go." (For The Fallen Dreams)
